

Are you investing in global megatrends and innovations not available in Australia?

Monik Kotecha from Insync Fund Managers and David Matters from Best Cellars invite you to join them for an evening presentation on global investment themes and a wine tasting of select international wines.

The Insync Global Titans Fund invests in a concentrated portfolio of exceptional global companies with a unique downside protection strategy. Monik Kotecha, Chief Investment Officer of Insync, has over 23 years of global investment experience at leading fund managers both in Australia and overseas.

Best Cellars is one of Sydney's premier suppliers and distributors of domestic boutique and international wines. David Matters will showcase interesting wines from around the globe including some classics and some interesting up and comers.
